

PRESS RELEASE

Corrected: Proposed VW Settlement Likely Misses Clean Air Targets

WASHINGTON, D.C. – “As currently configured, the Volkswagen Partial Consent Decree and Settlement will fail to effectively mitigate the lifetime total emissions of nitrogen oxides (NOx) prescribed by the court due to a funding scheme that favors less effective and available technologies and approaches when compared to proven and documented benefits of advanced clean diesel technology”, said Allen Schaeffer, the Executive Director of the Diesel Technology Forum.